

At the first sign of trouble most of the men run away.

Outside the Jewish trial, Peter denies that he is a friend of Jesus.

Once Jesus is sent to die, the
disciples hide
behind locked
doors for fear
that they will be next.

The women stay
with Jesus while he is being
crucified.

The women see where Jesus is buried.

The women return
to the tomb
expecting to
anoint Jesus' body.

Joseph of Arimathea asks to give Jesus a decent burial

Joseph of Arimathea and Nicodemus bury Jesus' body.

The Jewish
leaders arrest
Jesus in the garden.

The trial fails but the Jewish leaders
condemn Jesus
anyway

The Jewish
leaders threaten a riot if Jesus is not executed.

The Jewish
leaders watch to make sure Jesus
dies.

All Jews rest on the Sabbath.

The Jewish
leaders bribe the guards to say
Jesus' disciples
took the body.

Pilate allows a guard to be stationed at the tomb to stop any more trouble.

Pilate tries to release or pardon
Jesus, but to keep the peace lets him
be crucified.

Pilate allows
Joseph of Arimathea to take Jesus' body for burial.

The guards are
later found
unconscious by the tomb entrance .