

1.1

Jesus' body was not there.

1.4

The stone was rolled away and the tomb was open.

1.2

The grave clothes were left (the sheet that Jesus' body was wrapped in and the face cover).

1.5

There had been a Roman guard.

Matthew's Gospel tells us the Roman Governor had said:

“Take a guard. Go, make the tomb as secure as you know how.”

1.6

The Roman guards were out cold outside the tomb.

Matthew's Gospel tells us:

“The guards were so afraid that they shook and became like dead men.”

1.3

The grave clothes were folded. There was no sign of a hurried escape.
