

The Empty Tomb

1.1	What was missing?
1.2	What was left?
1.3	How were the grave clothes left?
1.4	Where was the stone?
1.5	How was the tomb guarded?
1.6	Where were the Roman guards?
1.7	How long was Jesus in the tomb (look at your timeline)?
For thought:
1.A	If you were a robber, would you take a body and leave the stuff you can sell?
1.B	Do you think robbers might have taken Jesus' body?

THE FORENSIC LABORATORY

2.1	How many injuries did Jesus have?
2.2	Estimate how much blood he might have lost?
2.3	What might this have done to him?
2.4	What other problems did he have?
2.5	Do you think a soldier can tell when someone is dead?
2.6	What is the night time temperature in Jerusalem in April?
For thought:
2.A	Do you think Jesus died that day?
2.B	If he didn't die, would he have been strong enough to roll back the stone himself just a day and a half later?

The Museum

3.1	In which books do we find out most about Jesus?
3.2	Why can we be confident that they are true?
3.3	Do other ancient writers mention Jesus?
3.4	How old is the oldest New Testament?
3.5	How old is the oldest bit of the Bible that we have?
3.6	How do archaeological findings help to prove what is in the Bible?
For thought:
3.A	Do you think Jesus really existed?
3.B	Do you think we can trust the records we have of Jesus' life?

THE POLICE HQ

4.1	Follow what the women did. What did they expect to find when they came to the tomb?
4.2	Follow what the men did. What do they do when there's trouble? Would they take on the guards?
4.3	Follow what the secret disciples did. Do you normally undo the things you've done?
4.4	Follow what the Jewish leaders did. If they wanted Jesus dead, would they hide his body?
4.5	Follow what the Romans did. Would hiding Jesus' body cause more or less trouble?
For thought:
4.A	Was anyone likely to have taken Jesus' body?
4.B	If his body wasn't taken then what else might have happened to it?
